Daria Sadovnichenko
Russian FLA

“Hi everyone! I’m Daria Sadovnichenko and I’ll be a Russian FLA at Holy Cross.
I’m a Muscovite born and raised. Here, in Moscow, I’m finishing a BA program in comparative literature. My major specialization was American studies and I’m happy to get an opportunity to spend a year in the US as I want to get a deeper understanding of the country and its culture.

“I like literature, art and music. I adore travelling and I try to do it as much as possible. Languages were always a very important part of my life. I have been studying English for 14 years already and I love it. Now I try my best to speak French fluently. I have finished a course of Teaching Russian as a Foreign Language. Feel free to ask me anything you would like to know about Russian culture. I hope that I can provide you with a profound knowledge of it….”

That is what I wrote last year as I was coming to Holy Cross to begin my first year as a FLA. Now, one year later, I should add that being a FLA is one of the most magnificent and exciting experiences I ever had and I cannot wait to do it again!
