1-7 p.m. | CHECK-IN FOR FAMILY WEEKEND

Hogan Campus Center, Room 320

Family Weekend guests are asked to check in as they arrive. Guests will get an updated schedule, map of campus, and a commemorative Family Weekend giveaway. Students and staff will be available to answer any questions. Those who check in will have a chance to enter a drawing for themed prize baskets. Winners will be drawn at noon on Saturday, Sep. 21.

10 a.m. - 6 p.m. | KatieMcKDesigns LLC

Hogan Campus Center, 1st Floor Lobby Table

Katie McKernan '17 will be selling her licensed Holy Cross artwork and merchandise (totes, mugs, etc.) during Family Weekend! Katie creates handmade linoleum ink carvings of campus scenes including the HC entrance gate, O'Kane Hall, and the Dinand library, all of which you can purchase and have personalized!

10 a.m. - 6 p.m. | CANTOR ART GALLERY EXHIBIT

Prior Performing Arts Center, Third Floor

Blue Profundity: Contemporary Artists Revisit a Color

This exhibition features contemporary artists who incorporate blue in their work to highlight the symbolic and historic meanings of the color. Blue is celebrated as a marker of socioeconomic status in history, a symbol of cultural pride and economic exploitation, and as a metaphor for sadness and depression. Artworks such as blue-and-white porcelain, hand-dyed paper pulp, and cyanotype photography explore these concepts by updating forms and materials to reflect current-day concerns with a nod to historical precedent. Confirmed artists include Adam Chau, Ifé Franklin, Michelle Samour, Heather Evans Smith, and Andrea Pettway Williams.

1-4 p.m. | CIOCCA CENTER TABLE

Hogan Campus Center, 1st Floor Lobby Table

Stop by the Ciocca Center's information table to discover the diverse pathways available for students interested in business. With three out of four Holy Cross alumni working in various business roles, learn how you can pursue your passion through any major while gaining valuable real-world business experience and insights.

1:30 and 3 p.m. | HIDDEN IN PLAIN SIGHT TOUR

Depart from the Joanne Chouinard-Luth Recreation and Wellness Center (The Jo) Patio

Are the exorcism rumors true? Are there secret labyrinths buried on campus? Find out! Learn about Holy Cross history, mystery, and lore on this walking tour of campus that will highlight some little-known facts and legends of Mount St. James. Led by Tom Cadigan, '02, Director of Alumni Regional and Special Programs, this fun tour will expand your Holy Cross horizons.

2-4 p.m. | ARCHIVES & DISTINCTIVE COLLECTIONS OPEN HOUSE

Dinand Library, 3rd Floor

Visit Archives & Distinctive Collections to learn about some of the milestone anniversaries celebrated at Holy Cross in 2024, including the Deaf Catholic Archives (50th); NIT championship (70th); Parents and Family Weekend (70th); and St. Joseph's Memorial Chapel (100th). Photographs, documents, and more will be on display in the Reading Room. Staff will be available to meet with you and answer questions.

8 p.m. | IRISH TRADITIONAL MUSIC HOUR AT HOLY CROSS PRESENTS: NATHAN GOURLEY AND JOEY ABARTA

Prior Performing Arts Center, Luth Concert Hall, 1st Floor

Boston based Uilleann piper Joey Abarta and fiddler Nathan Gourley are two of America's greatest Traditional Irish musicians, who have been playing music together daily since 2013. Their debut duo album, Copley Street, featuring Owen Marshall on Greek bouzouki, has an undeniable chemistry and demonstrates a nuanced understanding of each the other's playing. Their music includes offbeat settings of well-known tunes and beautiful pieces that seem to languish in obscurity. "Copley Street" is a wonderful album from two stunning young players that adds to Boston's rich history of traditional Irish music.

8:30-10:30 p.m. | FIRE PITS AND S'MORES

Hogan Campus Center, Hoval

Enjoy the camaraderie of fellow students and families in the cozy firelight on the Hoval. This is a popular gathering place for students to connect during the school year; share in that community with them and make some memories under the night sky!
