

Asian Studies Major - Course Planning Form

Minimum of 10 courses, Maximum of 14 courses

Name: _____ Class Year _____

#	Course Title	Semester Taken
---	--------------	----------------

1 Survey course of Asia _____

(ANTH 170 Contemporary Asia,
 PHIL 255 Asian Philosophy,
 PHIL 320 Self-Realization & Transcendence
 RELS 106 Buddhism,
 RELS 120 Comparative Religions/World View, or another course approved by the Director)

1 Arts of Asia course _____

(in literature, theatre, studio art, art history, or music)

1 course in Asian History _____

1 course with a focus on Religion in one or more areas of Asia _____

1 course that includes provides a Methodological or analytical framework _____

(does not need to focus on Asia, options
 Include history, anthropology, sociology, religious studies, economics, or political science)

At least 3 additional courses on Asia _____

- Two of these courses must be above the 100 level;
- Students who place out of the language requirement (see below) need at least 5 additional courses.

2 language courses equivalent to one year of College Study _____

The language requirement may be met through: 1) one year of study at the College; 2) intensive language study in a Study Abroad program; 3) intensive language study during the summer; or 4) prior AP language study, online courses, or heritage speakers (requires evaluation by a placement exam; these students must take additional electives to fulfill the 10 course minimum for the major).

NOTE: There is a limit of three courses in the performing arts

Additional Courses and Notes:
