

Physics Department Alumni Panel, 2024

Wednesday April 3rd, 3:45 – 4:45 PM

Smith Labs 154

Pat Connolly, Class of 2018

Pat graduated from Holy Cross with a degree in physics and philosophy, and then worked for several years in biotech as an imaging analyst for a contract research organization. Over the past year and a half, Pat has transitioned to working as an optical engineer at a small R&D firm, contributing to projects spanning areas from optical communications to 3D printing to metamaterials and many more.

Abby Corrigan, Class of 2019

Abby is currently an associate in the Multi-Asset Solutions Group (MAS) within Goldman Sachs Asset Management, where she focuses on portfolio solutions for non-profit and corporate pension asset pools. Abby began her career at Goldman Sachs in 2019 and joined MAS from the Risk Division. Abby received a Master of Science degree in Applied Physics from Columbia University in 2022.

Nate Gould, Class of 2020

After graduation from Holy Cross Nate worked as a Software Systems Engineer at Lockheed Martin developing software for a missile defense system for naval vessels. Last year Nate began a new role as an Electrical Engineer at Raytheon developing test systems that automate production testing of radar hardware components.