

Holy Cross Archives: LGBTQIA+ History Research Guide

Last edited: January 2020
Prepared by: Nikki Tantum

Introduction:

This research guide was created to assist researchers in locating LGBTQIA+-related items in the Holy Cross Archives. It includes items found in the College Archives which pertain to student activism, events, and other aspects of the LGBTQIA+ community at Holy Cross. Although this guide is a result of thorough research developed over many years, it should not be taken as a fully comprehensive list. This guide will be edited as more material is found.

Background:

This guide is a product of many years of work by students, faculty, and staff to preserve LGBTQIA+ history on the Holy Cross campus. In particular, many of the items listed were originally collected by Project Q+, an on-campus repository created in 2016 by Molly Heidemann and the Office of Diversity, Equity, & Inclusion to celebrate over two decades of LGBTQIA+ recognition and activism at Holy Cross. This guide is additionally reliant on research completed by Professor Stephanie Yuhl and her students while building exhibits to highlight LGBTQIA+ history at Holy Cross (I'm Not the Only One: LGBTQ+ Histories at Holy Cross, 2019) and the broader Worcester area (For the Record: LGBTQ+ Worcester, 2019). It was also completed with the help of the Holy Cross Archives staff.

For more information, suggestions, or requests to view the material listed here, please contact the Holy Cross Archives. Please note that Project Q+ still maintains a digital archive with additional materials that are not included here. Contact the Holy Cross Archives for more information.
