Biography/History:

Joseph Donahue was born on August 25, ¹⁹¹⁹ in Waterbury, CT to Timothy M. Donahue and Mary (O'Connor) Donahue. He attended Crosby High School in Waterbury from 1933-37 and entered the Society of Jesus on July 30, 1937. Donohue studied at Shadowbrook from 1937-41 and Weston College from 1941-45 and then taught at B.C. High from 1945-47. He was ordained on June 17th, 1950, and he returned to Weston College to study theology from 1947-1951. Rev. Donahue then taught at Cheverus High School in Portland, Maine from 1951-52. He returned to Boston College from 1953-60 and taught theology. He then taught theology at Holy Cross and was Assistant Dean from 1960-67. Rev. Donahue retired from teaching in 1985 and died on January 6, 1991.

Scope and Content Note:

This Collection contains the writings and personal effects of Rev. Joseph F. Donahue. There are also newspaper clippings from the student paper at Crosby High School. The programs from the Golden Jubilee offer a brief biographical sketch of Rev. Donahue, including important dates in his life. The majority of the collection is correspondence from the 1940s through 1990. Much of the early correspondence is hand-written, with later ones type-written. The collection also includes two eulogies that Rev. Donahue wrote, and his stole.
