Biography/History:

Rev. Richard J. Haberlin (1922 - 1959) graduated magna cum laude from Holy Cross in 1906. He went to study at the North American College in Rome where he was ordained in 1911. From 1927 until his death he served as the pastor for Saint Peter's Church in Dorchester, MA. He served as both the secretary and chancellor of the Archdiocese of Boston as well as its Vicar General. Pope Pius XI appointed Rev. Haberlin as a Domestic Prelate and in 1944 Pius XII elevated him to the position of Prothonotary Apostolic.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection includes two scrapbooks from Rev. Haberlin's trips to the Holy Land. One contains assorted dried flowers and the other contains photographs of his travels with Cardinal O'Connell in 1924. There is also a journal typed by Rev. Haberlin from his 1938 trip which included stops in Rome, Palestine, Milan, France and Ireland. The collection also has an inventory of the Haberlin Estate, personal items of Rev. Haberlin and photographs of Rev. Haberlin and other Church leaders. There is also one oversized box which contains three folders. One of the folders contains diplomas and certificates and the other two contain various photographs, mounted and unmounted, of important events or people in Rev. Haberlin's life.
