Biography/History:

Rev. Thomas F. McLoughlin, S.J. was born in Worcester on November 21, 1858. He studied at the local schools and attended Holy Cross. He entered the Jesuit Novitiate in Frederick, Maryland on May 24, 1877. He taught for five years at Georgetown and was ordained on 1891. He taught Philosophy at Holy Cross for the remainder of his career. In addition, he served as a trustee for the college and was active with the teacher's bureau at the college which helped to place college graduates in teaching positions. McLoughlin died on April 18, 1919.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection is in one half box and contains 2 folders of personal correspondence of Rev. McLoughlin. There is also a folder of correspondence concerning Mary Roberts who left a convent and sought McLoughlin's help in clearing an issue that she had with the convent. There is a retreat notebook which McLoughlin wrote probably as a student at Holy Cross. The remainder of the collection is made up of miscellaneous items of McLoughlin.

There is more correspondence of Rev. McLoughlin in the College Archives relating to his work with the College's teacher's bureau. It is located in the Education dept. records and consists mainly of letters to McLoughlin by alumni seeking teaching positions
