Biography/History:

John Murray was born on December 31, 1922 in Pennsylvania. After a year at St. Vincent's College he attended the United States Naval Academy from 1942-1945. He then attended Seton Hill College as a Premed student from 1947-1948, and after Georgetown University Medical School from 1948-1952. He entered the Society of Jesus on February 1, 1960, then attended Weston College from 1961-1968 and was ordained on June 10, 1967. He died on February 9, 1993.

During his life, Rev. John Murray, S.J., worked at St. Vincent's Hospital and UMass Memorial in Worcester as a psychiatrist, while living at Holy Cross. He also did extensive research on his family's genealogy as well as was an active member of the Jesuit Association of Psychiatrists.
