TAPS SOUNDED
There is no death! The stars go down to rise upon some other shore, and bright in Heaven’s jeweled crown
They shine forevermore.
And ever near us, though unseen
The dear, immortal spirits tread
For all the boundless universe
Is life there are no dead!

May they rest in peace. To our loved ones we extend our deepest sympathy.

Mrs. Myrtle Guglielmino
Ladies Auxiliary

Members of the Association were saddened to learn of the death of Myrtle Guglielmino, wife of our 1st Vice President Vincent Guglielmino. Stricken with leukemia for this past year, she never knew the defeat she had fought against, and attended the association reunion in Detroit last summer. Always on hand to help with the chores of the association she could be found at the registration desk assisting the reunion committee. We’ll never forget her for her kindness when we were sick. She phoned a few times each week asking for our welfare when actually we should be thanking her, as she was gravely ill.

The following are some of the people that remembered her and offered their sympathy at her wake:
Sister Edward Joseph Egan and Sister Marinella Amerson
Mr. and Mrs. (Charles) Libretto
Mr. Arthur Schmidt
Mr. Charles Wider
Mr. and Mrs. (George) Agar
Mrs. Olga Polka and family
Mr. Jacob Lasak
Mr. and Mrs. Wadulavage
Bill Klaur
Mr. John Morris
Mr. James Mullen
Mr. and Mrs. (All) Beuerbe
Mr. and Mrs. (Frank) Fazio
Mr. and Mrs. (Al) Orletti

Deeply Appreciate

I and my family deeply appreciate your letter of sympathy. Please express my thanks to the other members of the association. The General had not been well since he had a bout with pneumonia in late March, but his spirits were good and we had a wonderful Christmas. Bill Yarbough, his aide. Gen. Westmorland and his driver Ellenberger came to see him and they enjoyed reliving their hard times together. He was very proud of the 9th and I’ve had a dozen pictures and insignia. Gen. Collins told me he’d tried to get the General to take a higher command during the war but nothing would induce him to leave the 9th. I can believe it. Fr. Connors said his spirit was very high. He was a devoted friend. Again my thanks for your kind note.

Lilliane Jordan, 16, bled to death in a bunker with other civilians after the night Army Sgt. Bill Finley liberated the City Hall of Cherbourg, France.

Finley, a stripping 35-year-old from Cortland, N.Y., leaped into the bunker, grenade in hand.

"Je suis Francais! I am French," Lilliane cried. Finley didn’t pull the pin, and in struck himself to the more than 20 terrified men, women and children who had thrown up their hands.

To Lilliane and the citizens of Cherbourg, Bill Finley of Decatur, Ill., symbolized the American liberation of their city. The Germans had occupied Cherbourg in a strategic part on the English Channel, for 1,758 days.

This summer the city of Cherbourg will dedicate a tablet in Finley’s memory when it oberves the 60th anniversary of its liberation during World War II.

Finley died of combat wounds nine months after the liberation of Cherbourg.

When the people of the city dedicated to honor the young American, they were unable to trace him at first. A city ar chivist who had spoken with the soldier had spelled his name as Tinley.

A search by reporters and government and military of ficients on both sides of the Atlantic ended last week when Ted Shepherd of Decatur read a newspaper story about his boyhood friend and told Finley’s sisters, Jacqueline Neff and Cynthia Neff, to contact the Army.

The sisters agreed that the newspaper story bore an amaz ing similarity to their brother’s experience and got in touch with the Decatur Herald and Review which had published the story. The paper referred the sisters to the Associated Press bureau in Chicago, which replied their information to France and ultimately verified the sisters’ story.

Last Sunday, Cherbourg’s mayor said the search was over and that William Finley was the American soldier the city had sought.

Finley’s family was elated that Cherbourg will honor their

Bill, who was killed nine mon ths after the fighting in Cherbourg — and that the French recognized his kindness as well as his courage.

"My brother was the type of man to go in and help anybody," Mrs. Neff said.

Three weeks after Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower launch ed

the greatest seaborne inva sion in history, landing an Allied force on the beaches of Normandy, Finley was among the first foot soldiers to enter Cherbourg behind rumbling American tanks.

Late that evening of June 22, 1944, with German machine guns chattering, an American soldier dashed across an open square to a pillar on the steps of Cherbourg’s City Hall.

Under his cover, three men moved up, and together they crashed into the city’s ad ministrative offices, liberating them from German control. The Allies had captured an excellent harbor, Cherbourg had gained its freedom.

Though no witness could be found who saw Finley enter Cherbourg’s City Hall, the evidence accumulated during the search left no doubt among city officials that he was there.

Lilliane, who married a sailor and is now Mrs. William Reed of Parkersburg, W.Va., recalled her brother was lost when Finley burst into the shelter. She was separated from her parents, who lived outside the city, and she had just spent more than two weeks in a German work camp.

"He was very polite. That was what was remarkable. There were no soldiers coming through and they were all very roughy, she recalled in a telephone interview.

"He introduced himself and shook hands with us," she said. Mrs. Reed remembered the staff, tall, sturdy built soldier as handsome and considerate. She said, "He was trying to tell us he wanted to go home" to the U.S. But relatives he was never to see again.

Finley, who had quit Decatur High school at age 17 to enlist, spoke little French. Mrs. Reed said he spoke little French, but he communi cated well enough to make friends.

Finley spent the night in the shelter, sleeping on a blanket with his new French friends spread on the ground for him. Before he fell asleep, Finley winked at Lilliane.

Finley left the shelter the next day and rejoined his outfit to fight in Germany. He and Lilliane wrote to each other a couple of times.

Then, Lilliane said, Finley’s letters stopped coming. She received a letter from his parents, saying he had been killed in action and had never celebrated his 20th birthday.

Finley belonged to the 38th Infantry Regiment of the 9th Division. On March 30, 1945, he was wounded by shrapnel but remained on duty. Two days later, April 1, 1945, in Winter berg, Germany, he died of what the Army said were "a gunshot wound and multiple severe wounds of the chest and left wrist."

THE OCTOFOIL
TO "B" (4TH) OR "C" (3RD) RANK...

Florida redoubles itself since February in offering our north- ern friends a long awaited and enjoyable winter season with a sun, sand, and sea to die for. Many of our old friends who met at events such as our "BecO" men, are no doubt of the same mind. Florida has always been a favorite spot for those from the Northeast wanting to escape the winter's cold and enjoy a warm, sunny climate. The beaches, sun, and relaxed atmosphere are truly inviting.

However, the excitement and allure of Florida's beaches and warm weather are not the only reasons people choose to visit. The state is also home to a wide variety of activities and attractions that cater to all interests. Whether you're interested in history, nature, sports, or just relaxing on the beach, there's something for everyone.

Florida has a rich history that spans centuries, from the arrival of the first Spanish explorers to the establishment of the state and its numerous natural wonders. From the Everglades to the Keys, the natural beauty of the state is breathtaking. And with its mild climate, Florida is an ideal destination for outdoor enthusiasts. Whether you're hiking, fishing, or simply enjoying the sun and sand, there are countless opportunities to get outside and explore.

But Florida is more than just its beaches and natural景观. The state's cultural scene is vibrant, with a host of museums, art galleries, and performance venues that offer a wide variety of entertainment options. And with a diverse population and a rich history, Florida is a melting pot of cultures, offering a unique and dynamic atmosphere.

Despite the appeal of Florida, it's important to keep in mind that this isn't the only destination. There are many other places in the United States and around the world that offer similar attractions. Whether you're looking for a sunny getaway or a more adventurous experience, there's something out there for everyone. So when planning your next vacation, consider all your options and choose the one that best fits your needs and interests. Happy travels!

Sincere Gratitude

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude and appreciation to the Ninth Infantry Division Scholarship Fund for granting me a scholarship award during my college years. At the time of my graduation, I was employed as an Advertising Assistant for a graphic design studio in downtown Chicago. My father, who always supported me, was pleased with my decision to attend college and pursue a career in advertising.

In appreciation of the generosity of the scholarship, I have encased this letter in a frame and will hang it in my office as a reminder of your kindness.

Sincerely,

Lynn Belzooe

I hope this note finds you and yours in good health. This is an unusual number of letters you have received from me. I remember the times when I didn’t hear from you for weeks at a time. That was during the first battle after that was with the 9th Infantry Division. We were in Cherbourg, France and I had to write to you to let you know that I was still alive.

Enclosed are photos of me and my fox hole buddy (P 38) from Leechburg, Pa and George McCallum, who was my fox hole buddy in the same fox hole. He was with the Med Det of the 615 Armoured. I think the reason he was there was because he was a prisoner. I was captured on the 18th of June 1944 and they sent me home in a prisoner of war camp. I want to thank you and everyone else that has to do with the 9th Inf. Co B. I was given a recent contact by Lt. Powell, a former member of the 9th Inf. Co B and hope to see them at Lake Placid in June. He is coming from Kentucky which is a quite far from Georgia and I will need to get there, maybe on a bringing a group of old Kentucky moonshine. I also want to say hello to Dan & Rose DuBois, our wonderful Blunt and Hostess at our mini-reunion, Joe Gravino, Albert Celett, Bob DeMott, Andy Schenier, Irving King, Al Delvin, (the Hawk), Andy Sease, and all Co B 38th men.

I read that the 9th Inf. in battle. I intimated Aug., 1942 and the next day was sent to Ft. Bragg and was with the 9th from North Africa to the Elbe River and I am proud of my relation and my family. Our one war correspondent wrote that the 49th fought like a machine so why should they have to take some of the claps of it. Most of the 9th men of WWII are enjoying the twilight of their lives and I think the Vietnam veteran are my closest friends. I have sent to Co F 15th Regt 3rd Div and in Octofoil every month. I am for the 9th Inf. and info in the Octofoil. The 9thInf. Co B is not a POW. My wife, Miriam, is not able to travel. I am so sorry, we lost him in that plane. He is in heaven now. I wish it could be me. I am so sorry, we lost him in that plane. He is in heaven now. I wish it could be me.

Dear Mom & Dad:

I didn't get certain that certain day in September, but I was unable to send my wishes, so consider this a late con- gratulatory note. That was really a date to remember, sort of a declaration of independence. I hope that neither of you will ever have any regrets as far as the bewildering events are concerned. After the war, the family remained in the UK and its bonds even more stronger than before. Perhaps in a few year, be additions to our fami- ly portrait. There was a sin- land and probably a couple of daughters-in-law and the aspect of your branch's grants. So, once again, congratulations, Anniversary and God bless you both.

Your Son, Robert

Despite the war wounds and rheumatized arthritis I am still hanging in. I look forward to seeing you at the Octofoil every month. I pray that the membership, and is always a joy to see you and Dan for keeping this association together. I have two sons, one only and Tom Tokarchuk, what a guy and his wife, Marie. I can go on and on, but this friendship we have for each other is of the highest kind. I don't know about all of them. But when we shut it down, I will write. The leader, George Motenya was a young man from a very poor country. I don't understand some of his letter, like he says the world is a younger}

I would report to all the members the end result of a project that was a- rided by the 9th division assan toward Majr. Anthony (Flip) Devere, that had a project before he died. The Majr. had a fund for a set of bells for the Revolutionary Church building at Lake Placid, New York that he was to just announce as a communicant of 9th. One old part of the -sly to please things. We spent a nice afternoon talk- ing about the old days and monu- ments naming like Lt. Powell, L. Foreman, Dacoe, Bascone, Hacker, Epstein, GENESIO MINODORI, Capt. When was the last time you wrote a letter to our Mail Call Column?

I have been in poor health for quite some time. Not too long ago I was in the VA hospital and had a serious medical condition. My daughter, a registered nurse, was with me, and with the help of the nurses who watched over me, I am now home and feeling for God and a wonderful wife and a lot of friends in the Octofoil. I am now a member of the Octofoil so I can make some new friends and do some of the things I have been doing in the Octofoil so much that I am very glad I joined.

I am very glad to be getting the Octofoil and always enjoy meeting all the fellows from the 9th Inf. and the last few times he is so busy I felt guilty if I would bother him.

We expect to be in Lake Placid this summer and hope to see all of our friends. We have a good crop. A few weeks ago we ran a trip for sale from a clipping from a local paper that announced the date and place of the reunion. It made me wonder if I wasn't some what public in N.Y. and New England to let some people who have lost track of the association know when the next few dates were. I had a nice surprise the other day when my ring was going down a drawer and she found it curled up in a bed and sent it back to me in a sketch that I made of the marker of the association. 39th Inf. Go to the October issue of the Octofoil, and you will find info about the 9th reunion in Detroit. It's a great event and the committee did a wonderful job. I wish I could have attended but due to some personal issues I was unable to do so. However, I hope everyone who attended had a great time and I look forward to hearing about it.

Regarding the event, I have some thoughts. First, it is important to note that the reunion provided a great opportunity for members to reconnect and share stories from their time in service. It is also a chance for younger generations to learn about the history of the 9th用微信 and appreciate the sacrifices made by those who served.

Secondly, the committee did an excellent job in organizing the event. The location, activities, and overall experience were well-received, and I would encourage others to attend future reunions.

Lastly, I would like to express my gratitude to those who volunteered their time and effort to make the reunion a success. Their hard work and dedication are greatly appreciated.

Overall, it was a successful event that brought together old friends and created lasting memories.
