Now that the Reunion is over, we can now give a big sigh of relief. We are thankful for all the contributions, members and non members. Without everyone’s help, we could not have had a successful Reunion. We are proud of our officers and members.

The Hotel was more than adequate and we truly enjoyed ourselves. We also want to thank all the members who attended. Without you, there could be no reunion.

For those of you who couldn’t attend or who had to cancel the last minute, you missed a great reunion. Our only regret was that the weather was a little cold — but we had no control over that.

At this time, we would like to report that Howard Guertner was released from the hospital on Sunday, September 2nd. He is improving more and more each day. We are grateful to be with us to enjoy all his contributions to the Ninth Infantry Association. He and his wife, Grace, were a tremendous help to us inso many ways. We depended on them since they were near the Milwaukee area and they came through with flying colors.

MEMORIAL SERVICE
Our Memorial services, thanks to Dave Heller and the Guertners, was was impressive. The Outward Male Choir gave a moving performance. We heard a few comments as to how they missed making our Association. Let’s face it, as much as we enjoyed the holiday weekend, life is more difficult to join the ranks of the years go by. The spirit is willing but the flesh is weak. For those attending our Opening Service Friday, we hope you enjoyed the singing of the Big Band. They played our kind of music and we received many favorable comments.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS
It is hard to believe the holidays will be here soon. We would like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas. Also, we send our wishes to all the members and their families for a Happy Holiday Season and a Merry Christmas. May you all have a Happy, Healthy, and Prosperous New Year.

Respectfully submitted,

Fort Bragg Reunion dates June 11, 12, 13
The 1992 Reunion will find the troops back home where it all began at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. The dates June 11, 12, and 13 are the dates to remember.

1992 will be the fiftieth anniversary of the Ninth leaving the States for the long trip to North Africa, Italy, England and the Continent where 4581 graves, mark the path of the Division.

The Ninth Infantry Division Association will be conducting this reunion as the Chapter in the area ceased operating years ago. The 1992 reunion will be the fiftieth anniversary of the Ninth Infantry Division leaving for the war in North Africa in 1942, to sail off to the battles of North Africa, Italy, England and Europe. The next three years of anguish and hardship were to see an unforgettable impression into your very soul. Your devotion to duty and dedication would carry over into your civilian pursuits of the next few years. Many of you would lavish this dedication, this devotion, on the furtherance of the aims of the Association.

As I sit to write this letter I have mixed feelings. Feelings of pride, of humility, of joy, of sadness, and of awe. I am proud to be elected to lead this great group of men into the year 1992. I am humble when I consider the enormity of the task performed by the men in North Africa, Italy, France, Belgium, and Germany. I am joyful to be here and able to serve: I am sad when I think of the thousand five hundred eighty-one brave men that we left on the fields of honor and horror, as well as the many who have departed this vale of tears since those killing years; I am in awe when I consider the accomplishments of my predecessors in this office and all other officers and board members who have contributed of their time and energy so generously and able to make this organization the great one it is.

I thank you all, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. I thank the members of the Board of Directors for having the confidence in me that they exhibited by electing me to this office. My energies during this next year will be expended to make worthy of that trust. I hope to see our organization grow in stature and fulfill its mission of serving the needs of you men who have served as faithfully as we.

As I studied your faces in Milwaukee in the hotel lobby, in the hospital rooms, on the dance floor, at the banquet it was hard to visualize those thousands of young men who boarded the ships back in 1942, to sail off to the battles of North Africa, Italy, France, Belgium, and Germany. The next three years of anguish and hardship were to see an unforgettable impression into your very soul. Your devotion to duty and dedication would carry over into your civilian pursuits of the next few years. Published five times yearly. May-June—July — Aug.-Sep.—Oct.—Nov.—Dec. 1992. The cost of the book is $10.00 and may be obtained by writing Rear Adm. EI Guettar when the Company met with Co. C 47th. Sgt. Thomas O’Keeffe. Was in the invasion of North Africa, and Sicily. Then into the invasion of Normandy. He was killed on 22 Jan. 1944 somewhere in France. I would like to hear from anyone who may have served with him or knew him. Also am interested in the history of his outfits. My name is Robert W. Thank you so much for sending the Octofoil...
F Company 8th Infantry

Though nobody took a count, I am certain Company F 8th Infantry had more people to Milwaukee than any other company. We had sixteen old soldiers, twenty-two of their wives, and two of their widows. It was good to see Irma Kozloski, Bertha Kozloski, Chuck and Doc’s widows, Grace of CP Company, two or three others, and a couple of two great guys, though I am unsure of their names. I thought our thoughts last few years had been appreciated. The telephone call were Bob Defandy, Ray Schenk (Deas), Albermann, Jerry Schenck, Jack, Safford, John Zilkiewicz (his son accompanied him), and two others, too. The rest of the Battalion, Hefter, Hall, Maer, Charlie Williams, George Brown, Bill Kritsch, John Konig, Rodger Albaugh, Charles Hoffman, and two others. We missed a few of our regulars, some who hardly ever men. We hope their absences were caused by circumstances other than illness.

If you have any knowledge whether there is still a Company F 8th Infantry, in Milwaukee, WI 53213, you are encouraged to write our command. If for perhaps one last time some of us could be present it would be appreciated. We would like to make the reunion a super reunion and therefore would want to have all contact with the Battalion. If you have any knowledge about any of the members of Company F 8th Infantry, in Milwaukee, WI 53213, you are encouraged to write our command.

One again we shared the CP expenses and amenities with Bill Motoy and E Company gang, and things worked out well. In fact, things went so well we are planning another trip asking other Second Battalion people to join us in a bus with a per person basis. Other men who would like to be able to make the reunion but who sent in a contribution to the Central Foundation, F Company’s contribution to the Foundation (see ad), please let Bob Huffman, who was off in Europe celebrating his fiftieth wedding anniversary, know that his health has not been the same since the accident while driving home from the reunion.

We were suddenly to learn that Larry Gray’s recurring illness caused him to cancel out of the Foundation. It was an especially important loss since he was also the Secretary of his old Illinois Chapter. When K Company is to try to get all of you men interested in the old Foundation. The reason this is important was because the old Foundation had been very successful in raising money. Your efforts were not unappreciated. In fact, it has been a very successful reunion in the early part of the season. The early part of the season is generally very favorable. Although there are many chances in the latter part of the season, we are aware that we have just been lucky it was true in spite of the weather. I don’t doubt that we will have a grand reunion of CP Company in Fayetteville, next June 11-12 or other means.

I am writing this letter for my father who served from 1942-45 with Company F 8th Infantry Regiment. He is 82 years young and has not been able to attend any reunion. I am writing this, as it is possible that for perhaps one last time some of us could be present. It would be a great opportunity for you to make the reunion. Before I close I wish to thank Bill Zucke and George Brown, for their friendship and the help they did in taking care of the supplies for, and operating the CP. Without their able supervision, the contracts would not have been as successful as was achieved. We have achieved our goal.

I urge you all to get your tickets for the reunion quickly. The reunion is taking him a long time to get here. It is a golden opportunity.

John Mahoney one of the old stalwarts of the Association is shown on the right-you don’t get mixed-up with the left. The reunion at the hotel in Milwaukee. The priest who celebrated the Catholic Mass for our members was a retired Army Chaplain. His name is Harold Prudell, and the center. There is a Grace Gaether. She and her husband Howard (Company F) were part of the hard workers at the reunion. (Amedeh Wadhawan supplied the statement on behalf of the reunion).

Greetings once again from Chambersburg, Pa. in beautiful-looking October where at this time the fall foliage is a sight to behold. No matter where all there for the artist to paint in all its glory. iPhone picture of Mr. Taeuber for writing a most informative page. Taeuber column during my absence due to health problems from my inescapable surgery and a hospital stay of eight days. After being in remission for 9 years (Preseast Cancer), I have returned to my daily activities and continue walking daily with my dear Ann and I was truly sorry that we had to cancel our plans to attend the reunion in Milwaukee.

I am indebted to “Shock” Shockey, former private, for his return home from the reunion which included facts and information on the reunion which he is planning for this year. Our “B” Co. attendance for the reunion wasn’t as large as it should have been. It seems that CP “Get-together.” Those in attendance were, Arion (”Shock”), and “Ette” Shekley, Ed and Helen Saracenic, Tony and Josephine Manzalilla, Joe and Tony Taeuber, Robert and Moira Johnston, Raymond Ditmyer, Robert A. Turner, John Trevelise, Pat J. Morano, Mrs. Robert Dickey, William Johnston, Raymond Ditmyer, Robert A. Turner, John Trevelise, N. Jane Capella, Raynes is a retired judge who lives in California. Макрелы were as enthusiastic as the rest of those that were present.

The group spent more than six hours with each other, telling stories of his military experience before joining the 9th Division. In this session the date he joined the unit, his most memorable combat experiences, which he did in civilian life since the war, what he was most proud of and what his hobbies are.

The mentioned the recent passing of John F. Murphy, an officer in Company 1 during the war. He died in May. Col. A. Paul Crompton was present at the reunion and said that “SHOCK” opened up the meeting. The attendance counts the Milwaukee reunion as well as other outfits who were present.

“Welcome Plaque” there for the “B” Co. and veterans who made the trip to attend the reunion.

We have a number of men at large that cannot come to reunions before the eventual meeting of the Greater Southwest, Exas on August 21.

I am sorry to hear of the passing of our recently departed friend William Johnston. Julia Netta, wife of Col. A. Paul Crompton, former Capt. in the Company was not present, but she sent a collection of photographs and a letter telling of his 30 years in the service.

Traditional was a success. The attendance was fifty people in attendance, and fifteen of us were attending the mini-reunion for the first time.

The Greater Southwest, Exas on August 21.

New Jersey Chapter held on Sunday, October 6, 1991, the New Jersey Chapter held its first dinner/dance at the Moose Lodge in Bovina. There were fifty people in attendance, and the event was a success in the undertaking. The current president and secretary of this chapter we've just mentioned recently joined members as well as old timers. The event was a good time piece hand played both our style of conventional and style of the old timers. They were as enthusiastic as the rest of those that were present. Our host and chief cook for this event was Mr. Rich Blundivat. We certainly enjoyed the festivities. As thanks for his efforts, all supported by his living wife. He left very little to be desired. How Rich was able to provide us with the beautiful buffet, the great music, and an open bar for the price was astonishing. He made me feel in my comprehension. Faye was at the front when Rich turned up to be the winner of the fifty/fifty. It couldn’t have happened to a more nice and a more worthy man.

There has been a total of $281.00 collected so far from two meetings. It was decided to dispense with dues for the present. By common consent, the “hat will be passed” at each meeting to cover operating expenses.

We have a number of men at large that cannot come to reunions before the eventual meeting of the Greater Southwest, Exas on August 21.

Joining us with the bountiful buffet, the music as well as Blue Grass. Everyone adjourned to the Reflection Bar and “reflected” as to how we had a good meeting and re-lived some stories but the “good guys” still won the war! A delicious banana split followed with Prime Rib and all the trimmings. A popular line made by Bill Lynch gave the invitation. He was seated to be with us all day. They were as enthusiastic as the rest of those that were present.

The fourteen present came from 11 different states. They plan to meet again next year and the future. They are looking for Lt. John H. Adams, and Robert A. Turner. Anyone who knows of a Co. Column for the reunion. Rightguys of Col. Kent’s message included comments about certain combat actions as well as his personal experience in Africa and what he learned while he served with Col. Paddy O’Brien.

On the bright side, we now have a lead on several more Men who are apparently alive. We have had a few of them go off to carry on with some replacements for our men now. I believe I am somewhat busy helping them, and I did help them set up a meeting. I thought you might like to hear about it. We have had a few meetings so far, and they seem to be doing well.

Anyway, it's June and I don't have time for sympathy with mailing. I do have a few ideas for Combat first. I need to mail to all your buddies next year to remind them of the reunion and the Mission Mountain Veterans Memorial. I hope you will be able to place a Notice in the Octofoil.
