Arrangement:

All series are arranged chronologically. The original order of the collection is largely unknown. Since the collection remained in a rough sort state for over four decades, several staff members have handled and arranged and rearranged these papers. Two series, "Political Business" and "Personal," were created in Fall, 2000 out of "Miscellaneous," "Varia" and "Unidentified" boxes and folders: The Speech Material remains largely as found and is presumed to be in the chronological order that Walsh used the material, not the dates that individual items were published. Within each box or folder, those items with dates (day/month/year) are arranged before those that provide merely the year. The collection is arranged in the following manner:

Series 1 - Correspondence

- Walsh Correspondence (1896-1947)
- Connelly Correspondence (1936; 1941-1955, chiefly 1947-1955)
- Letters to Mary Walsh (1952-1953)

Series 2 - Personal Records (1879-1955)

Series 3 - Political Business (1900-1946)

Series 4 – Briefs of Cases Argued in Court (1902-1917)

Series 5- Speeches

- Printed (1914-1947)
- Speech Material (1899-1945)

Series 6 - Bank Records (1932-1946, chiefly 1942-1946)

Series 7 - Photographs (circa 1884-1954, chiefly 1940s)

Series 8 - Press Releases (1913-1946)

Series 9 - News clippings (1896-1954, chiefly 1920s-1940s)

Series 10 - Scrapbooks (1879-1946)

Series 11 – Books, Artifacts and Oversize Items

There are also bound volumes of speeches along with books that feature Walsh. Walsh's personal book collection was also given to the College and the majority of these that remain have been integrated into the general stacks, while some are shelved with his papers. See one of the archival staff for more information or access to these items.

Scope and Content Note:

David I. Walsh, from Clinton, Massachusetts, was a distinguished politician and alumnus of the College of the Holy Cross. His political career included the Massachusetts State Legislature, Lieutenant Governorship, Governorship and the U.S. Senate. Important firsts include: the first Catholic and Democrat Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts, first Catholic Governor of Massachusetts, and first Catholic U.S. Senator from Massachusetts, the first son of immigrant parents to be elected Governor of Massachusetts, and the first Democrat from Massachusetts in the U.S. Senate since the Civil War. Senator Walsh served on Education and Labor Committee in the 73rd and 74th Congresses and on the Committee on Naval Affairs in the 74th to 77th and 79th Congresses. The collection consists of the personal and political papers of Walsh and his lengthy career. The collection includes correspondence, bank records, briefs of cases argued in court, news clippings, photographs, political business, personal papers, press releases, speeches (drafts and printed/published), and speech material. There are also several scrapbooks and bound volumes of news clippings, speeches and correspondence that remain unprocessed. The bulk of the collection documents Walsh's political career in the U.S. Senate from the 1920s to 1940s.

History of the Collection

David I. Walsh's 1944 will provided for his papers to be given to his Alma Mater, The College of the Holy Cross. In 1949, Walsh's sister Mary formally commissioned Dorothy Wayman to write a biography of her late brother. Mary Walsh gave Wayman David I. Walsh's papers until the completion or publication of her book. The papers arrived at the College in 1952 or 1953. Little information exists about their initial deposit or arrangement at the College. Most recently, the collection was housed in file cabinets until the 1999 building renovations required the removal, boxing and storing of the collection. In the fall of 2000 the papers were processed and housed in acid-free folders and boxes.
