Note: Minimum of 10 Psychology Courses need to graduate; a maximum of 14 may be taken.

REQUIRED COURSES
- Introduction to Psychology
- Statistics
- Research Methods
- History & Theory

3 FUNDAMENTAL AREA COURSES
1 course in Biological Processes
- Physiology & Behavior
- Social Neuroscience & Perception
- Cognitive Neuroscience
- Evolution of Behavior

1 course in Cognitive and Behavioral Processes
- Learning
- Developmental Psychology
- Cognition & Memory
- Psychology of Language

1 course in Individual, Social, and Cultural Processes
- Personality
- Social Psychology
- Psychology of Adolescence
- Psychopathology

DEVELOPING INTERESTS COURSES
3 Elective Courses, at least one of which must be an advanced (i.e., 300 level) course

Social Science Course outside the Psychology Dept.

Natural Science Course outside the Psychology Dept.

AP Credit
Students with AP credit in Psychology are awarded advanced placement in the curriculum and forfeit that credit if they take PSYC100 Introduction to Psychology. AP credits count toward the minimum number of (10) of courses required in the major.