Administration

- Director of Latin American and Latino Studies Concentration (2005-08). Position reports through the Department of Interdisciplinary Studies, and is charged with all program planning, hiring and budgeting. Responsibilities in clued supervision of individual events, assisting in arranging visiting lecturers or groups, and authorizing related expenditures. The Director advises student concentrators and coordinates and advises all college departments on program offerings or organization. This program is expanding rapidly in courses offered, tenured faculty participation and adjunct hires, and number of student concentrators.
- Coordinator of Spanish Section (2005-06; 1998-9; 1995-6; 1990-91). This rotational position carried duties equivalent to Dept. Chair at Holy Cross. With over 100 majors, eight tenure-line members, seven adjunct faculty and seven foreign language assistants, the Spanish Coordinator oversees a section that is larger in terms of personnel than most departments at the College. The Coordinator of Spanish was responsible for hiring of all adjuncts; calls meetings and sets agendas, creates schedules of faculty and adjuncts, sits on college curricula committees, advises students abroad, and interacts with Dept. Chair and Dean on Spanish program issues and budgeting.[Note Spanish Dept and Chair position were created in 2010).
