

Recruitment and Hiring Resources

Below is a list, organized by discipline, of resources for faculty recruitment and hiring. All resources are hyperlinks to the organization's website. Two asterisks (**) indicate scholarly associations, societies, and caucuses' that are less well known and may be for specific communities (i.e., under represented minorities, women, etc). This is not an exhaustive list – if there are resources that you know about that are not included, please contact Amy Wolfson, Associate Dean of the Faculty or Greta Kenney, Coordinator of Diversity Leadership and Education so they can be added. This list will be posted on our website as well at: <http://offices.holycross.edu/about/diversity>.
