- Biblical Hazor: Tel Hazor is the largest biblical tel in the Land of Israel. Excavations here concentrate on the Israelite (Iron Age) and the Canaanite (Bronze Age) periods. Located in the Hula Valley, 20 miles north of the Sea of Galilee and Tiberias, near Rosh Pina.
  - Khirbet El-Eika (Hellenistic Galilee): On a high isolated mountain overlooking the Arbel Valley and the Sea of Galilee. This site contains remains from the Hellenistic period (4th – 2nd centuries BCE). Not much information is known about this era regarding material culture, settlement patterns and ethnic identities. This excavation is meant to shed light on these areas.

  - Tel Lachish: One of the most famous archaeological sites in the Near East, mentioned in various historical documents. It was the second most important city after Jerusalem.

Remains cover the period from the third to the first millennia BCE, as well as from the Classical and Medieval periods.
- Tiberias: Located in the heart of the ancient city of Tiberias. Founded in 19 C.E. by King Herod Antipas, son of Herod the Great, as the new capital of his kingdom.
