Biography/History:

Edward J. Golden graduated from Catholic Central High School in Troy, NY in 1951. He attended Holy Cross and graduated in 1955 with a degree in Economics. Golden joined the Air Force directly after graduation and became a navigator in the Strategic Air Command reaching the rank of Captain. After being discharged in 1958, Golden worked in construction, holding various management positions. In 1967 Golden founded the New York State Right to Life Committee in Albany, NY. He was the chairman for the NYS Right to Life until 1971 when he became the founding president of the National Right to Life Committee located in Washington D.C., a position he held until 1973.

In 1974 Golden campaigned for a seat in the House of Representatives in the 29th Congressional District in New York. In 1989 he became a real estate broker for Golden Homes, Inc. Golden remained active in Pro-Life circles, writing letters to politicians and letters to editors of newspapers concerning the topic.
